

PROGRAMME

FEBRUARY 6, 2024 – Royal Library of Belgium (KBR), BRUSSELS

12:30 Welcome

Ans Persoons [Brussels State Secretary for Urban Planning and Heritage]

Sarah Lagrillière [Deputy Director General, urban.brussels]

12:45 Introduction

Manja Vanhaelen [urban.brussels] & Stephanie Van de Voorde [Vrije Universiteit Brussel]

SESSION 1 – VALUE ASSESSMENT. CITIZEN PARTICIPATION AND CULTURAL SIGNIFICANCE

13:15 Keynote lecture - Participation and storylines. On the assessment of young heritage in the Netherlands.

Kees Somer [Cultural Heritage Agency of the Netherlands]

14:00 Short break

14:15 "What I love about my neighbourhood" - Discussing citizen participation in heritage assessment
Lidwine Spoomans [Delft University of Technology, the Netherlands]

14:30 Alma Gare in Roubaix: a postmodern garden-city, conceived and wished for by its inhabitants
Marion Alecian [Atelier de Recherche et d'Action Urbaines (ARAU asbl), Belgium]

14:45 Young offenders? The case for the cultural value of recent architectural heritage
Colm mac Aoidh [Hasselt University, Belgium]

15:00 Preserving the late 20th century Latin-American metropolis. The underground in São Paulo
Lara Melo Souza [Technische Universität Berlin, Germany]

15:15 Investigating the historical urban landscape framework: prioritising attributes assessment and its application in young heritage of Brussels
Khaoula Stiti [Université libre de Bruxelles, Belgium]

15:30 A constructive dialogue or one-way communication? Urban infill in two historical Swedish towns 1970-1995
Hedvig Zillén Mol [Dalarnas museum, Sweden]

15:45 A sustainable heritage in making - PoMo in Sweden as a field for further research
Mia Geijer [Uppsala University, Sweden]

16:00 Coffee break

SESSION 2 – POLICY INSTRUMENTS. REEVALUATING THE FRAMEWORK FOR THE APPLICATION OF HERITAGE TOOLS AND INSTRUMENTS

16:30 Keynote lecture - Current policy on young heritage. Strategies and instruments to safeguard young heritage (1975-2000) in Brussels

Harry Lelièvre [urban.brussels, Belgium]

17:15 Drawing up a criteriology of value assessment for young heritage in the region of Brussels - the case of the inventory 1939-1999

Véronique Boone and Géry Leloutre [Université libre de Bruxelles, Belgium]

17:30 Between mass production and critical renewal: the heritage of social housing in Flanders 1975-1985
Karina Van Herck [Flanders Heritage Agency, Belgium]

17:45 Re-evaluating a decade of decline (1975-1985): the case of Ghent
Evert Vandeweghe [Flanders Heritage Agency, Belgium]

18:00 Drink

FEBRUARY 7, 2024 – Royal Library of Belgium (KBR), BRUSSELS

SESSION 3 – BEYOND MATERIALS. INCORPORATING BUILDING CULTURE IN HERITAGE DISCOURSE

- 9:00 Keynote lecture – Beyond materials. Exploring the materiality of 1975-2000
Marylise Parein [Vrije Universiteit Brussel and urban.brussels, Belgium]
- 9:45 Keynote lecture – The finishing touch. Between resistance and fascination (France, 1975-2000)
Eric Monin [Université de Lille, France]
- 10:30 Schokbeton pre-cast concrete recipes and aesthetics
Wido Quist [Delft University of Technology, The Netherlands]

10:45 Coffee break

SESSION 4 – PRESERVATION AND CONSERVATION. SUSTAINABLE STEWARDSHIP AMIDST EVOLVING ARCHITECTURAL LANDSCAPE

- 11:45 Keynote lecture - A revision of modernism? Recent building heritage, its conservation or production
Andreas Putz [Technical University of Munich, Germany]
- 12:00 The campus Technik in Innsbruck as a negative example of the preservation of young heritage
Lydia Constanze Krenz and Benjamin Schmid [University of Stuttgart, Germany]
- 12:15 Monument -and now? Lecture Hall 3 and the Campus Cottbus
Elke Richter [Brandenburg University of Technology Cottbus-Senftenberg, Germany]
- 12:30 Challenges for the conservation of aluminum façades and their materiality
Gleardo Terziu [German Mining-Museum Bochum & Georg Agricola Technical University of Applied Sciences, Germany] and Roman Hillmann [Georg Agricola Technical University of Applied Sciences, Germany]
- 12:45 Closing word

13:00 Lunch Break

14:15 Departure to Alma metro station (for those registered for the guided tour)

FEBRUARY 7, 2024 – Alma metro station, Sint-Lambrechts-Woluwe, BRUSSELS

15:00 GUIDED TOUR OF THE SITE OF LA MAISON MÉDICALE (LA MÉMÉ)

Cécile Mairy [Origin Architecture & Engineering, Belgium]

16 :00 End